

Sexual Assault & Violence Intervention Services of Halton (S.A.V.I.S.) in Partnership with:
 Halton Community Legal Services, Halton District School Board, Halton Regional Police Services,
 Halton Women's Place, Nina's Place and Reach Out Centre for Kids (ROCK)/Ontario Early Years
 Centre (OEYC) and sponsored by Halton Regional Police Services Board,

Halton's 19th Annual "Take Back The Night"

FEATURING...

- Keynote Speaker Priscilla de Villiers
- Women and children anti-violence march

PLUS...

Children's Program:

- STOP – Simon's Tour of Positivity, Juggling Show
- Olivia's Children's Dance Troupe
- Face painting by Dusty the Clown
- FloJo the Clown
- Children's Activities by the ROCK/OEYC's Mobile Unit

TBTN Main Program:

- Brenda MacIntyre, Medicine Song Woman
- Carly-Jo Musical Group
- Emma Smith & Simon Harmgardt's Dramatic Performance on Teen Dating Violence
- Hands of Rhythm – Doumbek (Arab Drum) Performance feat. Belly Dancer Joharah
- Emma Smith, Teen Vocalist

AND...

- Bazaar Area
- FREE refreshments

When: Tuesday September 29, 2009 – 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.
Where: Burlington City Hall, Civic Square (426 Brant St.)
Information: (905) 825-3622
savis@savisofhalton.org
www.savisofhalton.org

Family
Friendly
Event

Take Back The Night (TBTN) has been an internationally organized event since the 1970's. Halton's TBTN includes a women and children only anti-violence walk to protest violence against women and children of all ages and backgrounds. We march to represent our right to walk at night without fear. Men are encouraged to contact SAVIS about how they can participate in TBTN.