

Bowling fundraiser to benefit SAVIS

Published on Feb 02, 2007

Get bowled over this winter for a good cause.

Sexual Assault & Violence Intervention Services of Halton (SAVIS) will soon be holding SAVIS Incredibowl '07...That 70s Bowl. The organization's new fundraising event will be held on Saturday, Feb. 17, from 2-5 p.m., at Burlington Bowl, 4065 Harvester Rd.

The venue will be transformed into a '70's time warp featuring cosmic bowling under the mirror ball, favourite tunes from that decade, a chance for community groups to deck themselves out in their hippest '70s threads and prizes. There will be contests for teams and individuals based on, among other things, bowling skills, pledges raised, best team costumes. Organizers plan to have 48 teams from around Halton.

Teams of 4-6 bowlers are invited to join the event by collecting pledges. Bowlers can wear '70s-themed costumes or their regular clothes. All bowlers will automatically be entered in a grand prize draw. Proceeds will fund services provided by SAVIS.
