KNOW THE SIGNS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Unaware of surroundings even though they've been in the area of an extended period of time

Suddenly have expensive clothes and materials; may also have hotel room key-cards even when underaged

Forced to work when sick, injured, or when menstruating

Have been taught to distrust outsiders, especially law enforcement

Feel that they have to 'pay back' someone for a perceived debt

Excessive concern for displeasing their partner or employer

Location may be a hotel/motel, or an apartment or condo that isn't owned by the individual Not able to move or leave job

Uses slang and lingo from within the sex work subculture

Have their ID and money held by someone else, or they may have a fake ID that lists them as older than they are

Lives in an unsuitable place, often with many other coworkers in substandard living conditions

Does not have the correct clothing or protective gear for their job

Lack of normal furnishing and few personal effects in their home

Completely unaware of their rights or may be intentionally misinformed about their rights in Canada

Have tattoos that act as 'branding' from the trafficker Excessive dependency on romantic partner after a short period of time

No cell phone or they don't know their own cell phone number

Not answering questions for themselves; someone else speaks for them

Physical signs of abuse or malnourishment

Not allowed to go to public places on their own; may not be allowed to hang out with friends or family

Works excessively long hours

Hypervigilant; acts as if they are constantly being watched

May have physical signs of substance dependency

Indicate that they are a sex worker but have a nightly 'quota' to meet or work for a manager/'pimp'/'daddy'
